Oh - ok I misunderstood. I'll definitely complete the survey.

Thanks,
Holly

It's definitely not required to participate in the LEP. I think they want plenty of input on what the WD as a whole is interested as they develop the program, hence the interest in large scale participation in the survey. I don't believe that filling out the survey commits you to participating in the LEP.

That said, don't sweat it if you don't have the bandwidth to fill out the survey right now.

Thanks - and yes I am planning to act on Friday. Have a great time!

Quick question regarding the LEP survey. Must we participate in the LEP? It sounds interesting (the doc review team) but honestly, I don't want to commit to another "project" as things are ramping up with ND's WQS (draft should be out shortly) and SD's WQS, should be out soon as well as they are late (they were expected in December 2019) and the SDDENR has been working hard to get the triennial review completed.

Also, I just started working with Fort Berthold - and we are currently working on a project Trish started - potential impacts of oil and gas operations on domestic wells (there are 3 components to the project - very cool stuff) - and the Tribe wants to start working on their WQS, as well as add some macro and fish sampling their 106 program.

Regarding Standing Rock, I haven't heard anything from the Tribe on my comments on their draft WQS, but I'm thinking all of these things are going to happen simultaneously (I hope not!)

But having said that, I am interested in participating in the "increasing diversity in the workplace" workgroup that was mentioned on the WD all hands...

Thanks - sorry for the long update! Talk to you soon...

Yes, we are still on for this afternoon, though there may not be many folks on as a bunch are out on leave.

Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP)

I need to start saving my leave so I can take it again LOL!

Talk to you at 3:00 - presuming we're still on for the WQS section call.

Hi Andrew, if you have a second, and are so inclined, would you mind approving my leave slips for this current pay period so I can submit my PPL?

Thank you so much!
